

Treasury Department
November 14. 1885

Sir,

I submit to you, enclosed, a communication addressed by Moritz Trust of your city to the President of the United States and by him referred to this Department and should be pleased if you will give to Mr. Trust any aid in your power and which may be consistent with the public interests.

I remain very Respy.
Yours Adept. S.

Sam Woodbury
Sec. of the Treas.
